5. ACTION ITEMS:

5-a. Implicit Bias Training Update

Staff Liaison Kurcz provided an overview of the Implicit Bias Training explaining why the training was important to complete, and the steps to complete and sign off on the training. He opened the conversation for any questions and answers those questions thoroughly.

5-b. 2024 CIDC Budget & Events

Staff Liaison Kurcz shared the projected budget with CIDC Committee Members for 2024. Following discussion, CIDC events for 2024 are:

MLK Build Up Day-$1,000

Resources and Refreshments-$100

Hispanic Heritage Month Event-$1,100

Monthly recognitions/celebrations - $1,000

It was determined that monthly recognitions or celebrations will be held in Room 214 and either be educational, proclamation, or partnering with other non-profit organizations. The committee decided that the $1,100 event each year could rotate or be determined each year.

5-c. Hispanic Heritage Month Event Planning (September 19th)

Committee members started planning for the Hispanic Heritage Month, ideas were presented but not finalized. Therefore, a special meeting was set for Thursday, August 31, 2023.

5-d. October 17th Discussion (Leaders Reception or Global Diversity Awareness)

Due to time restrictions for the meeting, chairperson Khan called for action item to be tabled until "Special Meeting" on August 31, 2023. All committee members agreed.
