

PROCLAMATION

Today, the Hanover Township Senior Center is recognized as a Nationally Accredited Senior Center.

Whereas, seniors are an integral aspect of our community, providing wisdom and lifelong experience that people of all ages can benefit from; and

Whereas, the vision of Hanover Township Elected Officials and the leadership of staff have support the quality of life for all Hanover Township seniors, and

Whereas, the Hanover Township Senior Center has involved, enriched, and empowered seniors in Hanover Township, serving seniors of area municipalities, including the Village of Hanover Park, since 2005; and

Whereas, the Hanover Township Senior Center, through a wide variety of programs in education, fitness, arts, recreation, travel, and volunteer service, has enhanced the ability of seniors to remain independent so they may remain an asset for all citizens; and

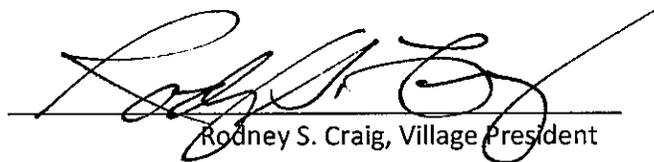

Whereas, the Hanover Township Senior Center has facilitated the dignity and self-esteem of seniors, thus tapping their experience, knowledge, skills, and abilities and enabling them to continue to contribute to our community; and

Whereas, NCOA's National Institute of Senior Centers (NISC) is the accrediting body for 10,000 senior centers nationwide;

Now, therefore, I Rodney S. Craig, President of the Village of Hanover Park, congratulate the Hanover Township Senior Center for becoming a Nationally Accredited Senior Center in Illinois, as awarded by NISC in October, 2012.

I call upon all citizens to recognize the special contributions that the Hanover Township Senior Center makes in enhancing the well-being of seniors in our community.

Dated this 2nd Day of October, 2012.

Rodney S. Craig, Village President
