

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, much of Hanover Park's honor, strength and stature can be attributed to the diversity of cultures and traditions that are celebrated by the residents of this great village; and

WHEREAS, Native Americans have played significant roles in the history of this nation's economic, cultural, spiritual and political development while working tirelessly to maintain and promote their culture and history; and

WHEREAS, as a result of their determination, hard work, intelligence and perseverance, Native Americans have made valuable and lasting contributions to our community, achieving exceptional success in all aspects of society including business, education, politics, science, and the arts; and

WHEREAS, in 1990, National American Indian Heritage Month was formally adopted to honor and affirm the importance of Native Americans throughout our American experience; and

WHEREAS, National American Indian Heritage Month is a time for all Americans to remember the stories and teachings of those who helped build our nation, and strengthened families and communities; and

WHEREAS, during National American Indian Heritage Month all Americans are encouraged to reflect on past successes and challenges of Native Americans and look to the future to continue to improve society so that we live up to the ideals of freedom, equality and justice;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rodney S. Craig, President of the Village of Hanover Park, Illinois, do hereby proclaim the month of

in the Village of Hanover Park, Illinois and encourage all residents to join me in honoring the many contributions made by Native Americans and invite them to attend the Opening Night of a Native American Art Exhibition at Trickster Gallery on November 16, 2012 at 6 pm located at 190 South Roselle Rd. Schaumburg, IL 60193.
