

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, Today the residents of Hanover Park celebrate the dedication of our Hanover Park Veteran's Memorial, the inspiring Eternal Flame Sculpture; and

Whereas, the Veteran's Committee represents the residents expectations to establish a memorial to acknowledge those who have served to protect the freedom's we know today; and

Whereas, former Village Manager Ron Moser dedicated budget dollars for the renovation of the entrance to Village Hall along with donations from the public and business community; and

Whereas, Public Works Director Howard Killian, our designer Dan Daiziel, and others within Village government have come together in a cost effective commitment to meet and exceed the expectations of the elected officials; and

Whereas, the Village Board, Rick Roberts, Ed Zimel, Bill Cannon, Jenni Konstanzer, James Kemper, Jon Kunkel, and Village Clerk Eira Corral, all supported the initiative and work of the Veteran's Committee to build the Veteran's Memorial; and

Whereas, the sculpture, created by Bruce Niemi, is characterized by an uplifting positive nature, his faith in God, and his Honor for those Veteran's who have faithfully served our nation; and

Whereas, today we acknowledge and thank VFW Post 5151 for their investment and dedication to the Memorial, and to VFW Post 11018 and Boy Scout Troop 398 for their participation today as we Honor the Veteran's on Veteran's Day and dedicate the Hanover Park Veteran's Memorial;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rodney S. Craig, President of the Village of Hanover Park, do hereby proclaim a Day of Honor this Veteran's Day as we:

Dedicate the Hanover Park Veteran's Memorial

in the Village of Hanover Park and may all residents Honor those who have served the United States of America.

Dated this 11th day of November 2012.

Rodney S. Craig, Village President
